

Professional Development Opportunity

Open to: Any SPS Teacher of proposed PDPs: _____

or # of proposed inservice credits: 1

Program: Integrating Technology - Flash Meets Substance

Dates: March 3, March 17 and April 14, from 2:45-6:05pm

Facilitators: Patricia Bruno, Technology Integration Specialist, Ellen Dufour, Math/Science Curriculum Coordinator, and Joanne O'Keefe, Library Media Specialist / Collins Middle School

Location: 3rd Floor Computer Lab, Collins Middle School

Session 1: Getting Started – Introduction and Expectations

Completion of Faculty Instructional Technology (FIT) Plan, and development of goals for use of technology and resources within your curriculum, culminating with a lesson plan

Introduction to full-text collections, including magazine, journal, encyclopedia, and video resources available through district subscriptions and public library system

Session 2: Introduction to SMARTBoard Notebook & Response / Lesson Development

Overview of the basics of SMARTBoard Lesson Activity Toolkit, Aegon's Middle School Math for SMART and SMART Interactive Response Systems that are integrated within SMARTBoard Notebook

Session 3: Welcome to iLife '09 / Lesson Development

Overview of iLife '09, featuring a close look at this suite of products, including iPhoto, iTunes, iMovie, Garage Band, and iWeb.

Creation of libraries of images, music, and other audio and video content to be incorporated into curriculum-based project using iMovie.

To earn 10 PDPs, participants must:

- complete Professional Development Form
- complete FIT Plan
- attend 10 hours of training described above
- complete lesson plan using at least one of the resources from training sessions

To earn One In-Service Credit, participants must:

- complete Professional Development Form
- complete FIT Plan
- attend 10 hours of training described above
- complete lesson plan using at least one of the resources from training sessions
- implement lesson in classroom
- present lesson and reflection of how the implementation went at school faculty meeting
- received signed acknowledgement by principal that participant presented and discussed lesson

If interested, please send an email message to Patricia Bruno (patriciabruno@salemk12.org). Please include your name, grade/subject area, and school.